37 SECTION 25, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
38 JANUARY 1, 2009]: Sec. 2.5. (a) If, in a Title IV-D case, an income
39 withholding order has not been issued with a support order under 40 section 0.5 of this chapter or the department of child services or an 41 administrative law judge issues an order of support under 42 IC 31-25-5, a Title IV-D agency may:

43 (1) issue an income withholding order with the support order;
44 and

45 (2) after providing notice under section 3.5 of this chapter,
46 implement the income withholding order unless the court:

47 (A) stays the implementation of the income withholding 48 order under section 0.5(c) of this chapter; and

49 (B) provides a written finding of the stay in the support
50 order.

(b) In a Title IV-D case in which the implementation of an income withholding order was stayed under section 0.5(c) of this chapter, the Title IV-D agency may:

(1) after providing notice under section 3.5 of this chapter, lift the stay if the obligor's child support and arrearage payments are delinquent; or

(2) lift the stay if the obligor requests implementation of the income withholding order.

(c) In a Title IV-D case, if:

(1) an income withholding order was stayed under section 0.5(c) of this chapter; and

(2) an obligor requests the implementation of the income withholding order;

the Title IV-D agency is not required to give notice under section 3.5 of this chapter before implementing the income withholding order.

(d) An income withholding order issued under subsection (a):

(1) has the same force and effect; and

(2) is enforceable in the same manner;

as an income withholding order issued by a court.

(e) The total amount required to be withheld under an income withholding order implemented under this section is the sum of:

(1) the obligor's current child support obligation; plus

(2) the amount of arrearage payment ordered by the court; plus

(3) an additional amount as determined under subsection (f) for:

(A) any arrearage that has not been adjudicated, if no arrearage has been adjudicated previously; or

(B) any additional arrearage that:

(i) has not been adjudicated; and

(ii) accrues since the last adjudication of arrearage by the court.

(f) If an obligor subject to an income withholding order is in arrears, unless otherwise ordered by a court, the Title IV-D agency or its agent may increase the weekly amount withheld as follows:

(1) If the arrearages are at least five hundred dollars ($500) and less than three thousand dollars ($3,000), an additional amount of up to twenty dollars ($20).

(2) If the arrearages are at least three thousand dollars ($3,000) and less than five thousand dollars ($5,000), an additional amount of up to twenty-five dollars ($25).

(3) If the arrearages are at least five thousand dollars ($5,000) and less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), an additional amount of up to thirty dollars ($30).

(4) If the arrearages are at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and less than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), an additional amount of up to thirty-five dollars ($35).

(5) If the arrearages are at least fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) and less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), an additional amount of up to forty dollars ($40).

(6) If the arrearages are at least twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) and less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), an additional amount of up to forty-five dollars ($45).

(7) If the arrearages are at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), an additional amount of up to fifty dollars ($50).

(g) A court is not bound by and is not required to consider the additional amounts described in subsection (f) when ordering, modifying, or enforcing periodic payments of child support.

SECTION 9. IC 31-25-2-21 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2009]: Sec. 21. (a) The department shall employ a sufficient number of administrative law judges to hear and decide cases under IC 31-25-5.

(b) An administrative law judge employed by the department is subject to rules adopted by the department under IC 4-22-2. IC 4-21.5 does not apply to a proceeding by an administrative law judge under IC 31-25-5.

SECTION 10. IC 31-25-4-17, AS AMENDED BY P.L.103-2007, SECTION 45, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2009]: Sec. 17. (a) The bureau shall do the following:

(1) Collect support payments when the payments have been assigned to the state by the application for assistance under Title IV-A.

(2) Assist in obtaining or establishing a support order, including an order for health insurance coverage under:

(A) IC 27-8-23;

(B) IC 31-14-11-3; or

(C) IC 31-16-6-4;

when there is no existing order and assistance is sought.

(3) Assist mothers of children born out of wedlock in establishing paternity and obtaining a support order, including an order for health insurance coverage under IC 27-8-23, when the mother has applied for assistance.

(4) Implement income withholding in any Title IV-D case:

(A) with an arrearage; and

(B) without an order issued by a court or an administrative agency.

(5) Enforce intrastate and interstate support orders using high volume automated enforcement features.

(6) Use a simplified procedure for the review and adjustment of support orders as set forth in 42 U.S.C. 666(a)(10).

(b) Whenever the bureau collects support payments on behalf of an individual who is no longer a member of a household that receives Title IV-A cash payments, the collected support payments (except collections made through a federal tax refund offset) shall be promptly distributed in the following order:

(1) Payment to the recipient of the court ordered support obligation for the month that the support payment is received.

(2) Payment to the recipient of the support payment arrearages that have accrued during any period when the recipient was not a member of a household receiving Title IV-A assistance.

(3) Payment to the state in an amount not to exceed the lesser of:

- 1 (A) the total amount of past public assistance paid to the 2 recipient's family; or
 3 (B) the amount assigned to the state by the recipient under
 4 IC 12-14-7-1.

5 (4) Payment of support payment arrearages owed to the
 6 recipient.

7 (5) Payment of any other support payments payable to the
 8 recipient.

9 (c) Whenever the bureau receives a payment through a federal tax
 10 refund offset on behalf of an individual who has received or is 11 receiving Title IV-A assistance, the child support payment shall be 12 distributed as follows:

- 13 (1) To the state, an amount not to exceed the lesser of:
 14 (A) the total amount of past public assistance paid to the 15 individual's family; or
 16 (B) the amount assigned to the state by the individual under
 17 IC 12-14-7-1.

18 (2) To the individual, any amounts remaining after the
 19 distribution under subdivision (1).

20 (d) Except as provided in section 19.5 of this chapter, whenever 21 the bureau collects a child support payment from any source on behalf
 22 of an individual who has never received Title IV-A assistance, the 23 bureau shall forward all money collected to the individual.

24 (e) Whenever the bureau receives a child support payment on 25 behalf of an individual who currently receives a Title IV-A cash
 26 payment or an individual whose cash payment was recouped, the child
 27 support payment shall be distributed as follows:

- 28 (1) To the state, an amount not to exceed the lesser of:
 29 (A) the total amount of past public assistance paid to the
 30 individual's family; or
 31 (B) the amount assigned to the state by the individual under
 32 IC 12-14-7-1.

33 (2) To the individual, any amounts remaining after the
 34 distribution under subdivision (1).

35 (f) Unless otherwise required by federal law, not more than 36 seventy-five (75) days after a written request by a recipient, the bureau 37 shall provide an accounting report to the recipient that identifies the 38 bureau's claim to a child support payment or arrearage.

39 (g) The bureau, the department of child services, and the 40 department of state revenue may not charge a custodial parent a fee to 41 seek or receive a payment through a federal tax refund offset as 42 described in subsection (c).

36 schedule an administrative hearing on the matter:

37 (A) The obligor is not the parent of the dependent child.

38 (B) The dependent child has been adopted by a person
39 other than the obligor.

40 (C) The dependent child is emancipated.

41 (D) There is an existing order of child support that 42 establishes the obligor's weekly child support obligation.

43 (16) A statement that medical support will be established in 44 accordance with IC 31-16-6-4.

45 (17) A statement that the department may review and adjust
46 an order for child support in accordance with the:

47 (A) child support guidelines; and 48 (B) state laws.

49 (18) A statement that the obligor is responsible for notifying 50 the department of a change in the obligor's address or employment not later than ten (10) days after the date of the change.

(19) Instructions on contacting the department if the obligor has any questions.

(20) A statement that the obligor has the right to:

(A) consult with an attorney; and

(B) be represented by an attorney at the negotiation conference.

(21) Other information necessary as determined by the department.

(c) The department shall serve a notice of financial responsibility under this section to the obligor and obligee in the same manner as prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

Sec. 3. (a) The department shall schedule a negotiation conference not more than thirty (30) days after the date the department issues the notice of financial responsibility under section 2 of this chapter.

(b) Except as provided in section 14 of this chapter, an obligor or obligee who has been served with a notice of financial responsibility under section 2 of this chapter shall:

(1) appear for the negotiation conference at the date, time, and location set forth in the notice of financial responsibility; or

(2) reschedule the negotiation conference with the department before the date of the negotiation conference as set forth in the notice of financial responsibility.

(c) The department shall reschedule a negotiation conference as established in rules adopted by the department under IC 4-22-2.

(d) If a negotiation conference is rescheduled, the department shall provide notice to the obligor and obligee of the new date and time of the negotiation conference in the same manner as prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

Sec. 4. (a) If the parties stipulate to an agreement of a child support obligation at the negotiation conference, the department shall issue an order of child support that includes the following:

(1) The amount of the obligor's weekly child support obligation.

(2) If applicable, the amount of the obligor's child support arrearage.

(3) Instructions on the manner in which the amount under subdivision (1) or (2) must be paid.

(4) The name, birth date, and residential and mailing address of the:

(A) obligor;

(B) obligee; and

(C) child for whom support is being sought.

(b) If the department issues an order under this section, the order shall:

(1) provide:

(A) that the mother shall have sole legal custody of the child unless the mother and father agree to an alternative custody arrangement; or

(B) if the mother and father agree to an alternative custody arrangement, the alternative custody arrangement; and

(2) establish:

(A) parenting time in accordance with the parenting time guidelines adopted by the Indiana supreme court unless the mother and father agree to an alternative parenting time arrangement; or

(B) if the mother and father agree to an alternative parenting time arrangement, the alternative parenting time arrangement.

(c) If the department issues an order under this section, both parents have the same right to access any records of the child that a parent may access under the law.

(d) The department shall serve an order under this section on the obligor and obligee in the same manner as prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

Sec. 5. (a) If:

(1) the parties do not stipulate to an agreement at the negotiation conference; and

(2) in the absence of an executed paternity affidavit, the obligor contests paternity;

the department shall issue an order for genetic testing of the obligor and continue the negotiation conference to allow for the receipt of the genetic test results.

(b) If the department issues an order for genetic testing under this section, the department:

(1) shall pay the costs associated with the genetic test; and

(2) may recover the costs described under subdivision (1) from the:

(A) alleged father if paternity is established; or

(B) obligee if paternity is not established.

(c) If the:

(1) department orders genetic testing under subsection (a); and

(2) results of the genetic test do not indicate at least a ninety-nine percent (99%) probability that the man is the child's biological father;

the department may dismiss the action or take other appropriate action as allowed by law.

(d) The department shall serve the order for genetic testing to the obligor and obligee in the same manner as prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

Sec. 6. (a) The department shall issue a temporary order of child support if:

(1) the parties do not stipulate to an agreement at the negotiation conference; and

(2) one (1) or both of the following apply:

(A) The obligor has executed a paternity affidavit.

(B) The results of the genetic test indicate at least a ninety-nine percent (99%) probability that the man is the child's biological father.

(b) If the department issues a temporary order under subsection (a), the department shall:

(1) file information with the clerk of the court as required under section 15(b)(2) of this chapter; and

(2) request an administrative hearing with an administrative law judge.

(c) The department shall serve the temporary order of child support to the obligor and obligee in the same manner as prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

Sec. 7. (a) The department shall issue a default order establishing child support against the obligor if:

(1) an obligor fails to:

(A) appear for the negotiation conference at the time and location set forth in the notice of financial responsibility; or

(B) reschedule the negotiation conference with the department before the date of the negotiation conference as set forth in the notice of financial responsibility; and

(2) one (1) or more of the following apply:

(A) The obligor has executed a paternity affidavit.

(B) The results of the genetic test indicate at least a ninety-nine percent (99%) probability that the man is the child's biological father.

(b) If, in an action to establish paternity and a child support obligation, the:

(1) obligor fails to:

(A) appear for the negotiation conference at the time and location set forth in the notice of financial responsibility; or

(B) reschedule the negotiation conference with the department before the date of the negotiation conference as set forth in the notice of financial responsibility; or

(2) obligor fails to:

(A) take a genetic test as ordered by the department; or

(B) appear for an appointment to take a genetic test without good cause; the department shall issue a default order of paternity and child support.

(c) A default order issued under subsection (a) or (b) must include the following:

(1) The amount of the obligor's weekly child support obligation.

(2) If applicable, the amount of the obligor's child support

1 arrearage.

2 (3) Instructions on the manner in which the amount under
3 subdivision (1) or (2) must be paid.

4 (4) The following:

5 (A) Name of the obligee.

6 (B) Name and birth date of the child for whom support
7 is being sought.

8 (5) For a default order establishing paternity, a statement
9 that the obligor has been determined to be the child's 10 biological father.

11 (6) Other information necessary as determined by the 12 department.

13 (d) The department shall serve a default order issued under 14 this section to the obligor and obligee in the same manner as 15 prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

16 (e) If the department enters a default order under this section,
17 the department, obligor, or obligee may request an administrative 18 hearing on the default order as established in rules adopted by the 19 department under IC 4-22-2.

20 Sec. 8. (a) Upon request by the department, an obligor, or an 21 obligee under section 7(e) of this chapter, the department shall 22 assign an administrative law judge to hold an administrative 23 hearing on the issue of paternity, if applicable, and child support.

24 (b) The department shall send notice of the administrative 25 hearing to the obligor and obligee in the same manner as 26 prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

27 Sec. 9. (a) An administrative law judge may not issue a 28 decision as to the validity of a pre-existing court order. However, 29 the department or an administrative law judge may review and 30 adjust an existing child support order in accordance with:

31 (1) the child support guidelines; and

32 (2) state law.

33 (b) An administrative law judge shall determine the matter of 34 paternity, if applicable, and child support de novo.

35 (c) An administrative law judge shall include written findings
36 and conclusions in an order issued by the administrative law judge
37 under this chapter.

38 (d) An order issued by an administrative law judge shall be 39 served upon the obligor and obligee in the same manner as 40 prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

41 Sec. 10. (a) The department or an administrative law judge
42 shall determine the amount of a child support obligation under this 43 chapter by applying the child support guidelines.

44 (b) The department or an administrative law judge may issue
45 an administrative subpoena requesting:

46 (1) income information; or

47 (2) other information relevant for establishing and enforcing
48 an order for child support.

49 Sec. 11. (a) If a paternity affidavit is executed under 50 IC 16-37-2-2.1, the:

- (1) mother has sole legal custody of the child; and
- (2) father has reasonable parenting time rights in accordance with the parenting time guidelines adopted by the Indiana supreme court;

unless another custody or parenting time determination is made by a court under IC 31-14.

(b) If a genetic test is requested after the execution of a paternity affidavit, a court shall order that the genetic test be paid:

- (1) from the county general fund of the county in which the child support proceeding occurs; or
- (2) by the party who requested the genetic test.

(c) The county shall pay an order issued under subsection (b)(1) without an appropriation.

Sec. 12. (a) An obligor or obligee may file a written request with the department for the review and adjustment of:

- (1) a court order for child support; or
- (2) an order for child support issued under this chapter.

(b) The department, not later than thirty (30) days after receipt of a request for review and adjustment of child support under this section, shall:

- (1) if the department objects to the request for review and adjustment of child support based upon the failure to meet the requirements under IC 31-16-8-1 or the child support guidelines, notify the requesting party that the request has been denied and advise the party of the party's right to request an administrative hearing; or
- (2) if the department does not object to the party's request, issue a notice of review and adjustment of child support.

(c) If a party requests an administrative hearing under this section, the administrative law judge shall:

- (1) hold an administrative hearing not later than ninety (90) days after the administrative law judge receives the request; and
- (2) determine only the issue of adjustment of child support.

(d) The department shall serve the obligor and obligee with a notice of review and adjustment of child support in the same manner as prescribed under Rule 4.1 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

(e) A request for review and adjustment of child support shall not stay an order for child support issued by the department under this chapter.

Sec. 13. (a) A party may seek judicial review of an order by an administrative law judge under this chapter not later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the postmark date on the order issued by the administrative law judge.

(b) A party may seek judicial review of an order issued under section 4 of this chapter establishing custody of a child and parenting time.

(c) The clerk of the court shall send a notice of the appeal that includes the date and time of the hearing to the:

- (1) appellant;
- (2) appellee;
- (3) department; and
- (4) Title IV-D prosecuting attorney in the county in which the appeal was filed.

(d) A court shall hear an appeal under this section de novo.

Sec. 14. (a) If the department, at the request of another state's child support agency, is acting on behalf of a nonresident obligee, the nonresident obligee is not required to appear at a negotiation conference or an administrative hearing under this chapter.

(b) The department may:

- (1) take evidence related to a child support obligation from a nonresident obligee by telephone deposition; and
- (2) present the evidence at a negotiation conference or an administrative hearing under this chapter.

Sec. 15. (a) The department shall file the information described in subsection (b) with the following:

- (1) The clerk of the court in which an action relating to child support for a child is pending.
- (2) If there is not an action relating to child support for a child pending in a court, the clerk of the court in the county in which the notice of financial responsibility under section 2 of this chapter was issued.

(b) The department shall file the following with a clerk of the court described under subsection (a):

(1) If the department issues an order of child support under section 4 of this chapter, the following:

- (A) A copy of the order.
- (B) Proof of service of the order described under clause (A).
- (C) A copy of one (1) of the following:
 - (i) An executed paternity affidavit.
 - (ii) A genetic test.

(2) If the department issues a temporary order under section 6 of this chapter, the following:

- (A) A copy of the temporary order.
- (B) Proof of service of the temporary order.

(3) If the department issues a default order under section 7 of this chapter, the following:

- (A) A copy of the default order.
- (B) Proof of service of the:
 - (i) notice of financial responsibility; and
 - (ii) default order.
- (C) If applicable, a copy of the:
 - (i) paternity affidavit; or
 - (ii) result of the genetic test.

(4) If an administrative law judge issues an order establishing paternity and child support under section 9 of this chapter, the following:

- (A) A copy of the order establishing paternity and child

- 1 support.
 2 (B) The:
 3 (i) paternity affidavit; or
 4 (ii) if applicable, genetic test results.
 5 (c) The clerk shall:
 6 (1) stamp the date of receipt of a copy of an order
 7 establishing paternity, if applicable, and child support under 8 this chapter; and
 9 (2) assign the order described under subdivision (1) with a
 10 cause number.
 11 (d) An order of child support filed under this section has all
 12 the force, effect, and remedies of an order of the court.
 13 Sec. 16. The department shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to 14 administer this chapter.
 15 SECTION 12. [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE] (a)
 16 Notwithstanding IC 31-25-5, as added by this act, the department
 17 of child services shall adopt rules to administer IC 31-25-5, as 18 added by this act, before January 1, 2009.
 19 (b) This SECTION expires July 1, 2009.
 20 SECTION 13. An emergency is declared for this act.
 (Reference is to SB 105 as introduced.)

and when so amended that said bill be reassigned to the Senate Committee on Corrections, Criminal and Civil Matters.
